from the Global Leader in Surface Protection

The P-TEX range offers a simple way to keep floors and furniture free from scratches, dirt and expensive damage that can be caused by pets, their food, dog crates and pet cages.

A great opportunity to increase the basket value with all pet item sales.

Simply cross-sell a P-TEX mat with any number of pet products, from dog and cat crates, litter trays and food bowls, to dog beds and bird cages and increase your company profit.

P-TEX mats have many uses, for every kind of pet - they're the practical product your customers didn't know they needed ... until now!

Dog Crate Floor Protection Mats

Dog crates are great to help your pet feel safe, secure and comfortable - and provide a secure area that a dog can go into for short periods of time - or use as a sleeping den.

However, metal crates can cause expensive damage to your flooring!
Wooden floors can get scratched and dented while carpet fibers can get worn and be subjected to rips and tears.

A P-Tex Floor Protection Mat creates a protective barrier between the crate and your flooring.

Highly durable and easy to clean or move around, a Dog Crate Floor Protection Mat will protect your hard floors and carpets from the day-to-day wear a dog crate can cause.

Unbeatable protection for your carpet or hard floor from the damage caused by dog crates and puppy
training

A flexible and light super-durable protective barrier.

0.9mm thick, lightly
embossed with rounded corners.

No more dents & scratches!

No more rips & tears!

P-Tex Dog Crate Floor Protection Mats are perfectly safe for your pet and are guaranteed not to adversely affect varnished or lacquered floors.

They contain no phthalates and are completely free of any toxic chemicals.

Guaranteed not to crack, chip or shatter under normal use.

Compatible with under floor heating systems.

Not sensitive to alkali-based cleaning products.

Recyclable.

Odorless and toxin free - does not contain BPA, PVC, tin, lead or cadmium.

Prevent expensive damage and look after your dog and your home with a P-Tex Dog Crate Floor Protection Mat!

Anti-Microbial Pet Station Mats

P-TEX Anti-Microbial Mats contain FS Bio, a unique anti-microbial additive which inhibits the growth of harmful microbes on the mat surface.

It won't wash off or wear away and it lasts the lifetime of the mat.

Use under pet beds to protect your carpets from lingering odor and 'nesting' behavior

Total barrier protection for use under litter trays or puppy training pads.

Easy to clean, simply wipe or mop as needed.

P-Tex mats are non-toxic and phthalate-free.

Ideal to use under food and water bowls, to protect floors and carpets from spillages and stains.

For hard floors, including polished wood, laminate and tiles, choose a smooth back P-Tex Floor Protector mat.

Keeps your floor free from damage and dirt. The backing is smooth, stable, and will not mark or scratch your floor

To protect carpets, choose a gripper-back P-Tex mat. Small spikes grip onto the carpet and ensure the mat won't move around during use.

Provides a complete barrier to keep your carpet clean and free from damage and odor
